If more than one of the joint holders are present at any meeting personally or by duly authorised representative, proxy or attorney, the joint holder who is present whose name stands first in the Register in respect of the securities is entitled alone to vote in respect of the securities.

5.5 Non-recognition of Equitable Interests, etc.

Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Company is entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute security holder of the share and is not, except as ordered by a Court or as required by statute, bound to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable or other claim to or interest in the share or the part of any other person.

5.6 Issue of redeemable preference securities

Subject to the Law, any preference securities may be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company, are liable to be redeemed.

5.7 Issue of new preference securities

The rights conferred upon the holders of the securities of any class issued with preferred or other rights are, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the securities of that class, deemed not to be varied by the creation or issue of further securities ranking equally with the first-mentioned securities or with the rights of Members.

6. CERTIFICATES

6.1 Availability of certificates

Notwithstanding rule 5.4((e)), it is a condition of issue of any securities that the Company need not have ready for delivery any certificate relating to those securities unless the person who is registered as the current holder of the securities makes a request in writing for the Company to complete and deliver the share certificates in which case the Company must do so within one calendar month of receipt by the Company of such a request. Where the Company is required to issue certificates for securities, every security holder is entitled, without payment, to one certificate for the securities registered in that security holder's name or to several certificates in reasonable denominations, each for a part of the securities.

6.2 Forwarding of certificates

The Company may send any certificate to a security holder by prepaid post addressed to the security holder at that security holder's Registered address or as is otherwise directed by the security holder and every certificate so sent shall be at the risk of the security holder entitled thereto.

6.3 How certificates are issued

If the Board wishes to issue certificates for securities, or where the Company is required by the Law to issue certificates for securities, security certificates may be issued under the Seal or by authority of the Board (whether or not in accordance with rule 29.3) in any form prescribed by the Board permitted under the Law and are to be signed in any manner determined by the Board.

6.4 Old or defaced certificates

If a certificate is worn out or defaced, upon production of the certificate to the Company, the Board may order it to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate.

6.5 Indemnity to Company

If a certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the giving of such indemnity (if any) and any evidence that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed which the Board may require and upon the payment of any fee the Board may from time to time determine, a new certificate may be issued instead of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate. A certificate issued to replace a certificate which has been lost, stolen or destroyed may be endorsed as having been issued instead of a lost, stolen or destroyed.

7. CALLS

7.1 Power to Make calls

Subject to the terms upon which any securities may have been issued, the Board may make calls from time to time upon the security holders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their securities. Each security holder is liable to pay the amount of each call in the manner, at the time and at the place specified by the Board. Calls may be made payable by instalments.

7.2 Obligation for calls

The Company may make arrangements on the issue of securities for a difference between the holders of those securities in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of the calls.

7.3 When a Call is Made

A call is deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed. The call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board at any time prior to the date on which payment in respect of the call is due.

7.4 Interest on the Late Payment of calls

If any sum payable in respect of a call is not paid on or before the date for payment, the security holder from whom the sum is due is to pay interest on the unpaid amount from the due date to the date of payment at the rate the Board from time to time determines. The Board may waive the whole or part of any interest paid or payable under this rule.

7.5 Instalments

If, by the terms of an issue of securities, any amount is payable in respect of any securities by instalments, every instalment is payable as if it is a call duly made by the Board of which due notice had been given, and all provisions of these rules with respect to the payment of calls and of interest or to the forfeiture of securities for non-payment of calls or with respect to liens or charges apply to the instalment and to the securities in respect of which it is payable.

7.6 Payment in Advance of calls

If the Board thinks fit it may receive from any security holder all or any part of the moneys unpaid on all or any of the securities held by that security holder beyond the sums actually called up and then due and payable either as a loan repayable or as a payment in advance of calls. The Company may pay interest on the moneys advanced at the rate and on the terms agreed by the Board and the security holder paying the sum in advance.

7.7 Non-receipt of Notice of Call

Notice of any call is to be in writing including such information as the Law may require, but the non-receipt of a notice of any call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of any call to, any security holder does not invalidate the call.

8. FORFEITURE AND LIEN

8.1 Notice Requiring Payment of Sums Payable

If any security holder fails to pay any sum payable on or in respect of any securities, either for allotment money, calls or instalments, on or before the day for payment, the Board may, at any time after the day specified for payment whilst any part of the sum remains unpaid, serve a notice on the security holder requiring that security holder to pay the sum together with interest accrued and all expenses incurred by the Company by reason of the non-payment.

8.2 Time and Place for Payment

The notice referred to in rule 7.1 is to name a day on or before which the sum, interest and expenses (if any) are to be paid and the place where payment is to be made. The notice is also to state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place specified, the securities in respect of which the sum is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

8.3 Forfeiture on Non-compliance with Notice

If there is non-compliance with the requirements of any notice given pursuant to rule 8.1, any securities in respect of which notice has been given may, at any time after the day specified in the notice for payment whilst any part of allotment moneys, calls, instalments, interest and expenses (if any) remains unpaid, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. The forfeiture is to include all dividends, interest and other moneys payable by the Company in respect of the forfeited securities and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

8.4 Notice of Forfeiture

When any share is forfeited, notice of the resolution of the Board is to be given to the security holder in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture and the date of forfeiture is to be made in the Register. Failure to give notice or make the entry as required by this rule does not invalidate the forfeiture.

8.5 Disposal of Forfeited Securities

Any forfeited share is deemed to be the property of the Company and the Board may sell or otherwise dispose of or deal with the share in any manner it thinks fit and with or without any money paid on the share by any former holder being credited as paid up.

8.6 Annulment of Forfeiture

The Board may, at any time before any forfeited share is sold or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture of the share upon any condition it thinks fit.

8.7 Liability Notwithstanding Forfeiture

Any security holder whose securities have been forfeited is, notwithstanding the forfeiture, liable to pay and is obliged forthwith to pay to the Company all sums of money, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of the forfeited securities at the time of forfeiture, together with expenses and interest from that time until payment at the rate the Board from time to time determines. The Board may enforce the payment or waive the whole or part of any sum paid or payable under this rule as it thinks fit.

8.8 Company's Lien or Charge

The Company has a first and paramount lien or charge for unpaid calls, instalments, interest due in relation to any calls or instalments and any amounts the Company is called upon by law to pay in respect of the securities of a security holder upon securities registered in the name of the security holder in respect of which the calls, instalments and interest are due and unpaid (whether presently payable or not) or in respect of which the amounts are paid and upon the proceeds of sale of the securities.

8.9 Sale of Securities to Enforce Lien

The Company may do all such things as may be necessary or appropriate for it to do to effect a transfer or to protect any lien, charge or other right to which it may be entitled under any law or these rules.

8.10 Title of Securities Forfeited or Sold to Enforce Lien

- (a) In a sale or a re-allotment of forfeited securities or in the sale of securities to enforce a lien or charge, an entry in the Board's minute book that the securities have been forfeited, sold or re-allotted in accordance with these rules is sufficient evidence of that fact as against all persons entitled to the securities immediately before the forfeiture, sale or re-allotment of the securities. The Company may receive the purchase money or consideration (if any) given for the securities on any sale or re-allotment.
- (b) In a re-allotment, a certificate signed by a Director or the Secretary to the effect that the securities have been forfeited and the receipt of the Company for the price of the securities constitutes a good title to them.
- (c) In a sale, the Company may appoint a person to execute or effect a transfer in favour of the person to whom the securities are sold.
- (d) Upon the issue of the receipt or the execution of the transfer the person to whom the securities have been re-allotted or sold is to be registered as the holder of the securities, discharged from all calls or other money due in respect of the securities prior to the re-allotment or purchase and the person is not bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money or consideration; nor is the person's title to the securities affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, sale or re-allotment.
- (e) The net proceeds of any sale or re-allotment are to be applied first in payment of all costs of or in relation to the enforcement of the lien or charge or the forfeiture (as the case may be) and of the sale or re-allotment, next in satisfaction of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is then payable to the Company (including interest) and the residue (if any) paid to, or at the direction of, the person registered as the holder of the securities immediately prior to the sale or re-allotment or to the person's executors, administrators or assigns upon the production of any evidence as to title required by the Board.
- (f) If a certificate for the securities is not produced to the Company, the Board may, where the Company is required by the Law to issue certificates for securities, issue a new certificate distinguishing it from the certificate (if any) which was not produced.

9. PAYMENTS BY THE COMPANY

9.1 Payments by the Company

If any law of any place imposes or purports to impose any immediate or future or possible liability on the Company to make any payment or empowers any government or taxing authority or government official to require the Company to make any payment in respect of any securities held either jointly or solely by any holder or in respect of any transfer of those securities whether in consequence of:

- (a) the death of the holder;
- (b) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by the holder or the trustee, executor or administrator of that holder or by or out of the holder's estate;
- (c) any other act or thing,

the Company may exercise any of the rights set out in rule 9.2.

9.2 Rights of the Company

In each of the situations described in rules 9.1((a)) to ((c)) the Company:

- (a) is to be fully indemnified from all liability by the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator and by any person who becomes registered as the holder of the securities on the distribution of the deceased holder's estate;
- (b) has a lien or charge upon the securities for all moneys paid by the Company in respect of the securities under or in consequence of any law;
- (c) has a lien upon all moneys payable in respect of the securities registered in the Register as held either jointly or solely by the holder for all moneys paid or payable by the Company in respect of the securities under or in consequence of any law, together with interest at a rate the Board may determine from time to time from the date of payment to the date of repayment, and may deduct or set off against any moneys payable any moneys paid or payable by the Company together with interest;
- (d) may recover as a debt due from the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator or any person who becomes registered as the holder of the securities on the distribution of the deceased holder's estate, any moneys paid by the Company under or in consequence of any law which exceed any money then due or payable by the Company to the holder together with interest at a rate the Board may determine from time to time from the date of payment to the date of repayment; and
- (e) may, if any money is paid or payable by the Company under any law, refuse to register a transfer of any securities by the holder or the holder's trustee, executor or administrator until the money and interest is set off or deducted or, in case the money and interest exceeds the amount of any money then due or payable by the company to the holder, until the excess is paid to the Company.

9.3 Rights not prejudiced

Nothing in rules 9.1 or 9.2 prejudices or affects any right or remedy which any law confers on the Company, and, as between the Company and each holder, each holder's trustee, executor, administrator and estate, any right or remedy which the law confers on the Company is enforceable by the Company.

10. TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES

10.1 Instrument of Transfer

Subject to these rules including rule 36, a security holder may only with the unanimous approval of the Board transfer all or any of the security holder's securities by an instrument in writing in the form that the Directors approve.

10.2 Registration Procedure

Where an instrument of transfer approved by the Board is used by a security holder to transfer securities the following provisions apply:

- (a) it must be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee unless it is a sufficient transfer of marketable securities within the meaning of the Law;
- (b) the instrument of transfer must be left for registration with the Company, or, if applicable, at the share registry of the Company, accompanied by the certificate for the securities to which it relates (if any) and such information as the Directors properly require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and in that event, the Company must, subject to the powers vested in the Directors by these rules, register the transferee as a Security Holder;
- (c) the Company may register all registrable transfer forms, split certificates, renunciations and transfers, issue certificates and transmission receipts and mark or note transfer forms without charge except in the case the Company issues a certificate for securities where the issue of a certificate is to replace a lost or destroyed certificate;
- (d) on registration of a transfer of securities, the Company must cancel the old certificate (if any);
- (e) the Board may refuse to register any transfer or transmission of securities without assigning a reason; and
- (f) the instrument of transfer referred to in rule 10.1 must be accompanied by any additional documentation required by the Board.

10.3 Entry in the Register

A transferor of securities remains the holder of the securities transferred until the transfer (if any) is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the securities. The right to vote any share passes to the transferee on the day the transfer is entered in the Register in respect of the securities.

10.4 Closing Register

Subject to the provisions of the Law, the Register may be closed at any time the Board thinks fit.

10.5 Right to refuse registration

Notwithstanding any other provisions contained in these rules, the Company may, in the Directors' absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor,

Constitution of Bundaberg Friendly Society Medical Institute Limited

refuse to register or may prevent or interfere with the registration of a transfer of securities in the Company.

10.6 Transmission by Death

On the death of a security holder, the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to securities registered in the name of the deceased security holder shall be the chairman of the Company.

11. SUBSCRIPTIONS AND DONATIONS

The donation amounts, application fees and the annual subscription fees for the various classes of Membership shall be such amounts and due at such times as the Board may from time to time determine.

12. INCOME AND PROPERTY

12.1 The Company is to be a non-profit organisation and none of its income, property, profits or financial surplus shall be paid to or distributed amongst the Members, the Board or security holders except as provided in this Constitution.

12.2 The income and property of the Company shall be applied in promotion of its objects.

12.3 All the monies of the Company shall be banked in the name of the Company in a bank account at such bank as the Board may from time to time direct.

13. GENERAL ACCOUNTS

13.1 The financial year of the Company shall commence on the first day of July and end on the thirtieth day of June in the following calendar year.

13.2 Proper books and accounts shall be kept and maintained showing correctly the financial affairs of the Company. The Company shall ensure the relevant accounting and auditing requirements of the Act are duly complied with.

13.3 The Company shall appoint and retain a properly qualified auditor whose duties shall be determined in accordance with the Act.

13.4 The Board shall cause to be made out and laid before each annual general meeting a balance sheet and profit and loss account made up to date not more than six months before the date of the meeting.

14. INSPECTION OF RECORDS

The Board shall determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and place and under what conditions the accounting records and other documents of the Company or any of them will be open to the inspection of Members other than the Board, and a Member other than the members of the Board does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company except as provided by law or authorised by the Board or by the Company in general meeting.

15. GENERAL MEETINGS

15.1 General meetings of the Company may be called and held at the times and places and in the manner determined by the Board. Except as permitted by the Law, the Members may not convene a meeting of the Company. By resolution of the Board any general meeting (other than a general meeting which has been requisitioned by Members in accordance with the Law) may be cancelled or postponed prior to the date on which it is to be held.

- 15.2 The Chairman of a general meeting may refuse admission to, or require to leave and remain out of, the meeting any person:
- (a) in possession of a pictorial-recording or sound-recording advice;
 - (b) in possession of a placard or banner;
 - (c) in possession of an object considered by the Chairman to be dangerous, offensive or liable to cause disruption;
 - (d) who refuses to produce or to permit examination of any object, or the contents of any object or container, in the person's possession;
 - (e) who behaves or threatens to behave in a dangerous, offensive or disruptive manner; or
 - (f) who is not:
 - (i) a Member or a proxy, attorney or representative of a Member;
 - (ii) a Director; or
 - (iii) an auditor of the Company.

16. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

- 16.1 Not less than 21 days' notice of a general meeting may be given by the Board in the form and in the manner the Board thinks fit (which may be by publication in a newspaper operating within the area in which the Company operates) including notice of any general meeting at which the Board proposes or these rules require that an election of Directors be held. The non-receipt of a notice of any general meeting by, or the accidental omission to give notice to, any person entitled to notice does not invalidate any resolution passed at that meeting.
- 16.2 If the meeting is to be held at 2 or more places the notice is to set out details of the technology that will be used to facilitate such a meeting and any other matters required to be stated by the Law in relation to the use of such technology.
- 16.3 Section 249P of the Law applies to statements given to the Company by Members for distribution.

17. NOTICE OF SPECIAL BUSINESS

17.1 Notice of Special Business

Any Member who wishes to place an item of special business before the annual general meeting of the Company, must lodge the request with the Company no later than 30 days after the end of the financial year of the Company.

17.2 Board to Consider Item of Special Business

The Board will consider each item of special business received in accordance with rule 17.1 and may at its discretion determine whether to include the item or not in the agenda and notice to the annual general meeting.

18. PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS

18.1 Business of General Meetings

- (a) The business of an annual general meeting is to receive and consider the financial and other reports required by the Law to be laid before each annual general meeting, to elect Directors in the place of those retiring under these rules or those appointed pursuant to rule 22.2 of these rules, when relevant to appoint an auditor, and to transact any other business which, under these rules, is required to be transacted at any annual general meeting. All other business transacted at an annual general meeting and all business transacted at other general meetings is deemed to be special. Except with the approval of the Board, with the permission of the Chairman or pursuant to the Law, no person may move at any meeting either:
- (i) in regard to any special business of which notice has been given under rule 17, any resolution or any amendment of a resolution; or
 - (ii) any other resolution which does not constitute part of special business of which notice has been given under rule 17.
- (b) The auditors and their representative are entitled to attend and be heard on any part of the business of a meeting which concerns the auditors. The auditors or their representative, if present at the meeting, may be questioned by the security holders, as a whole, about the audit.

18.2 Quorum

Seven Members (of which 2 must be Directors) must be present to constitute a quorum for any meeting. No business may be transacted at any meeting except the election of a Chairman and the adjournment of the meeting unless the requisite quorum is present at the commencement of the business.

18.3 Adjournment in Absence of Quorum

If within 15 minutes after the time specified for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon a requisition by security holders, is to be dissolved, and in any other case it is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week (or, where that day is not a business day, the business day next following that day) at the same time and place and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time specified for holding the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.

18.4 Chairman

- (a) The Chairman of the Board is entitled to take the chair at every general meeting.
- (b) If at any general meeting:

- (i) The Chairman of the Board is not present at the specified time for holding the meeting; or
- (ii) the Chairman of the Board is present but is unwilling to act as Chairman of the meeting, the deputy Chairman of the Board is entitled to take the chair at the meeting.

(c) If at any general meeting:

- (i) there is no Chairman of the Board or deputy Chairman of the Board;
- (ii) the Chairman of the Board and deputy Chairman of the Board are not present at the specified time for holding the meeting; or
- (iii) the Chairman of the Board and the deputy Chairman of the Board are present but each is unwilling to act as Chairman of the meeting, the Directors present may choose another Director as Chairman of the meeting.

18.5 Acting Chairman

If during any general meeting the Chairman acting pursuant to rule 18.4 is unwilling to act as chairman for any part of the proceedings, the Chairman may withdraw as Chairman during the relevant part of the proceedings and may nominate any person who immediately before the general meeting was a Director or who has been nominated for election as a Director at the meeting to be Acting Chairman of the meeting during the relevant part of the proceedings. Upon the conclusion of the relevant part of the proceedings the Acting Chairman is to withdraw and the Chairman is to resume acting as Chairman of the meeting.

18.6 General Conduct of Meeting

Except as provided by the Law, the general conduct of each general meeting of the Company and the procedures to be adopted at the meeting are as determined by the Chairman. The Chairman may at any time the Chairman considers it necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting demand the cessation of debate or discussion on any business, question, motion or resolution being considered by the meeting and require the business, question, motion or resolution to be put to a vote of the Members present. The Chairman may require the adoption of any procedure which is in the Chairman's opinion necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at any general meeting of the Company, whether on a show of hands or on a poll. The Chairman at his total discretion limits the time each person may speak on a resolution and the number of times a person may speak on a resolution or item of business.

18.7 Adjournment

The Chairman may at any time during the course of the meeting adjourn from time to time and place to place the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting or any debate or discussion and may adjourn any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting. If the Chairman exercises a right of adjournment of a meeting pursuant to this rule, the Chairman has the sole discretion to decide whether to seek the approval of the Members present to the adjournment and, unless the Chairman exercises that discretion, no vote may be taken by the Members present in respect of the adjournment. No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

18.8 Voting

- (a) Each question submitted to a general meeting is to be decided in the first instance by a show of hands of the Members and security holders present and entitled to vote. Subject to paragraph (b), in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman has, both on a show of hands and at a poll, a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the Chairman may be entitled as a Member or security holder or as a proxy, attorney or duly appointed representative of a Member or security holder.
- (b) On a show of hands, where the Chairman has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution, the Chairman cannot vote but has a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes cast by Members and security holders entitled to vote at the meeting.

18.9 Declaration of Vote on a Show of Hands; When Poll Demanded

- (a) At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been passed or lost, having regard to the majority required, and an entry to that effect in the book to be kept of the proceedings of the Company signed by the Chairman of that or the next succeeding meeting, is conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. A poll may be demanded:
 - (i) before a vote is taken;
 - (ii) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
 - (iii) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.
- (b) A poll may be demanded by:
 - (i) the Chairman;
 - (ii) at least 5 Members or security holders present entitled to vote on the resolution;
 - (iii) by a Member or security holder present with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.
- (c) No poll may be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting.

18.10 Taking a Poll

If a poll is demanded as provided in rule 18.9, it is to be taken in the manner and at the time and place as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn. In the case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chairman's determination in respect of the dispute made in good faith is final.

18.11 Continuation of Business

A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. A poll demanded on any question of adjournment is to be taken at the meeting immediately and without adjournment.

18.12 Special Meetings

All the provisions of these rules as to general meetings apply to any special meeting of any class of security holders which may be held pursuant to the operation of these rules or the Law.

18.13 Voting Rights

- (a) Subject to rule 18.14 a Member is entitled to exercise only one vote on any question arising for determination by Members and security holders.
- (b) A security holder is entitled to exercise only one vote for each security held on any question arising for determination by Members and security holders.
- (c) This rule does not prevent a Member or security holder who has been appointed to represent a Member from voting both as a Member, security holder and in that other capacity.

18.14 Closing of Member Register

A Member is entitled to vote at a meeting, if and only if the Member is a financial Member of the Company on the date of the meeting. However, for the purpose of determining who is a Member, the Company shall close the Register twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the meeting, and only those Members who both appear on the Register and are current financial Members at the date of the meeting are entitled to vote.

19. APPOINTMENT OF PROXY

- 19.1 Any Member or security holder who has the right to vote at a general meeting may appoint a proxy to vote at a general meeting on that Member's or security holder's behalf. A proxy need not be a Member or security holder who is entitled in their own right to vote at a general meeting.
- 19.2 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under seal or the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised by the appointor.
- 19.3 An instrument appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument of proxy so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the instrument.
- 19.4 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

- 19.5 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the common or usual form or in a form issued by the Board.

20. DEPOSIT OF PROXY AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS

An instrument appointing a proxy shall not be treated as valid unless the instrument, and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, is or are deposited, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, at the registered office of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting.

21. VALIDITY OF VOTE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

- 21.1 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or a power of attorney is valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal or the revocation of the instrument of proxy (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or of the power of attorney, if no intimation in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation has been received by the Company at its registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.

22. DIRECTORS

22.1 Number and Appointment of Directors

- (a) The number of Directors (not including alternate Directors) is required to be the number, not being less than 4 nor more than 6, which the Board may from time to time determine provided that the Board may not reduce the number below the number of Directors in office at the time of the reduction.
- (b) All Directors are required to be natural persons.
- (c) All Directors are required to be Members, unless specified otherwise by the Board in accordance with rule 25.3.

22.2 Power to Appoint Directors

The Board has the power at any time to appoint a Member as a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board but so that the number of Directors does not exceed the maximum number determined pursuant to rule 22.1((a)). Any Director appointed under this rule may hold office only until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Company and is then eligible for election at that meeting but is not to be taken into account in determining the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at the meeting.

22.3 Remuneration of Directors

- (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Directors are to be paid out of the funds of the Company as remuneration for their services as Directors, such sum accruing from day to day as the Company in general meeting determines to be divided among them in such proportion and manner as they agree or in default of agreement, equally.

- (b) The Directors' remuneration for their services as Directors is by fixed sum and not a commission on or percentage of profits or operating revenue and may not be increased except at a general meeting where particulars of the proposed increase have been given to the Members and security holders in the notice convening the meeting.

22.4 Remuneration of Directors for Extra Services
